

Home Group Questions
January 8: I Timothy (1:1-11)

1. Discuss the author and recipient of this letter. What kind of relationship did they have? See also Acts 16:1-5?
2. Paul describes himself as “an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God.” Discuss the significance of this statement.
3. See v.2. How do the 3 aspects of the greeting relate to each other?
4. Why is doctrine important?
5. What is the point of correct doctrine? See v.5.
6. See vv. 3-4 again. What types of teaching today create “disputes” like those spoken of here? How should we respond?
7. What is the purpose of the law? But what happens if we no longer believe the law has any validity?
8. What is the essence of the Gospel? (v.11). What should be our focus?

Home Group Questions
January 8: I Timothy (1:1-11)

1. Discuss the author and recipient of this letter. What kind of relationship did they have? See also Acts 16:1-5?
2. Paul describes himself as “an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God.” Discuss the significance of this statement.
3. See v.2. How do the 3 aspects of the greeting relate to each other?
4. Why is doctrine important?
5. What is the point of correct doctrine? See v.5.
6. See vv. 3-4 again. What types of teaching today create “disputes” like those spoken of here? How should we respond?
7. What is the purpose of the law? But what happens if we no longer believe the law has any validity?
8. What is the essence of the Gospel? (v.11). What should be our focus?