

Home Group Questions
January 15: I Timothy (1:12-17)

1. In verses 12-13, to what does Paul credit the success of his ministry? How does he describe his own “qualifications”?
2. How is God’s grace “exceedingly abundant”? (See v. 14 & Rom. 5:20-21).
3. On what does Paul’s personal testimony focus in v. 15?
4. What trends in modern Christianity might pose a threat to one’s dependence on the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ?
5. Is anyone beyond salvation? How does the example of Paul help answer this question?
6. In verse 15, Paul says he is the worst of sinners. How can he say this and is there a lesson here for us?
7. How is verse 17 a fitting response to grace?

Home Group Questions
January 15: I Timothy (1:12-17)

1. In verses 12-13, to what does Paul credit the success of his ministry? How does he describe his own “qualifications”?
2. How is God’s grace “exceedingly abundant”? (See v. 14 & Rom. 5:20-21).
3. On what does Paul’s personal testimony focus in v. 15?
4. What trends in modern Christianity might pose a threat to one’s dependence on the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ?
5. Is anyone beyond salvation? How does the example of Paul help answer this question?
6. In verse 15, Paul says he is the worst of sinners. How can he say this and is there a lesson here for us?
7. How is verse 17 a fitting response to grace?