

Home Group Questions
February 12: I Timothy (2:9-15)

1. Review Genesis 2:18-25. Why was the woman created? How was she created? What does this tell us about her position and role?
2. Discuss feminism. Why did it come about? What issues has it tried to address and how has it overstepped its bounds?
3. Why do we struggle with the term “submission”? Discuss how it is a godly trait?
4. How did the fall happen? How did it reveal the failure of male and female roles?
5. What does it mean that the men are to lead? What does that look like? What would the women like to see?
6. Discuss verse 15. What does it mean and how is it applied?
7. The CMA has major division over the issue of women in leadership – this summer it was passed that they be allowed to be Sr. Pastors. What should be our response?

Home Group Questions
February 12: I Timothy (2:9-15)

1. Review Genesis 2:18-25. Why was the woman created? How was she created? What does this tell us about her position and role?
2. Discuss feminism. Why did it come about? What issues has it tried to address and how has it overstepped its bounds?
3. Why do we struggle with the term “submission”? Discuss how it is a godly trait?
4. How did the fall happen? How did it reveal the failure of male and female roles?
5. What does it mean that the men are to lead? What does that look like? What would the women like to see?
6. Discuss verse 15. What does it mean and how is it applied?
7. The CMA has major division over the issue of women in leadership – this summer it was passed that they be allowed to be Sr. Pastors. What should be our response?