

Home Group Questions: 26 February 2017

Review the five lists of spiritual gifts in the New Testament (Rom. 12:6–8; 1 Cor. 12:7–11; 12:28–30; Eph. 4:11; 1 Pet. 4:10).

1. Do you know what your spiritual gift(s) is? Name it and state how you know that you indeed have this gift.
2. How would you help a new believer discern and cultivate their gift from God?
3. How are you using your spiritual gift to serve God's church? Be specific.
4. What does your current way of serving the church say about your relationship with God?
5. There is much confusion and errant teaching about spiritual gifts in our day. In what ways have you observed or experienced this?
6. Will you commit to serving others at Richmond Alliance Church for the glory of God? Share with your group what you will do this year to demonstrate this commitment.

Theology Bonus: Ask your home group leader to explain cessationism to you. Is this doctrine biblical? Why or why not?

Home Group Questions: 26 February 2017

Review the five lists of spiritual gifts in the New Testament (Rom. 12:6–8; 1 Cor. 12:7–11; 12:28–30; Eph. 4:11; 1 Pet. 4:10).

1. Do you know what your spiritual gift(s) is? Name it and state how you know that you indeed have this gift.
2. How would you help a new believer discern and cultivate their gift from God?
3. How are you using your spiritual gift to serve God's church? Be specific.
4. What does your current way of serving the church say about your relationship with God?
5. There is much confusion and errant teaching about spiritual gifts in our day. In what ways have you observed or experienced this?
6. Will you commit to serving others at Richmond Alliance Church for the glory of God? Share with your group what you will do this year to demonstrate this commitment.

Theology Bonus: Ask your home group leader to explain cessationism to you. Is this doctrine biblical? Why or why not?