CONTEMPLATION CORNER

"He who cannot forgive another breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself."

- George Herbert

Missions

Don & Betty Orr - "Our little apartment has become a home, and next week we should complete our residency process...We feel that we are strategically and wonderfully situated in our city and where God wants us to be. As we oversee our region, it is the stories of others and seeing God work through them that get us excited. Excited about what God is doing and how we see prayers answered."

- Pray for Don's trip back to Poland as he connects with our Ukrainian partners and helps lead a team of students from South Carolina.
- Pray for Betty as she is involved with a prayer class.
- Pray for our team here under heightened security and for our teams in other countries in the midst of uncertain times.
- Rejoice with us as we have heard stories of lives being changed and people coming to know Jesus as Lord..

Copies of letters from our sponsored missionaries are available by the Mission display in the foyer.

Prayer & Praise

Jeremiah Coe remains in Richmond Hospital, undergoing medical testing. He and Elizabeth express their thanks for your prayers.

Please continue to pray for Delsa Constantino as her sickness is progressing. Delsa asks for the Lord's guidance regarding ongoing treatment.

Pastor Ron is attending the Basics Conference this week (for men who serve as pastors and Christian workers). Pray for refreshment, encouragement, and safe travel.

Pray for our country of Canada. We have a new prime minister. Let's be faithful in praying for our leadership as they begin a very demanding role in a time of continual change.

If you have a specific need you would like prayer for, please call us at the church, send an email, or text Pastor Ron or one of the Elders.

A LIBRARY UPDATE (FROM ANNETTE)

I've been told that men are not readers. Hmm. In my family that doesn't stand. My father & brothers (6) were, and are, readers. And I've come across several men at RAC who are also readers. So let's scrap that thought! Even if you only read your Bible, you ARE a reader.

New books added to our 2025 library collection are:

- a child's book, "The Most Glorious Easter";
- a fiction by Tessa Afshar, "The Queen's Cook";
- by Steve Miller, "Foreshadow";
- by David M. Levy, "Hebrews, A Commentary";
- and "Jesus in the Hebrew Scripture" by Meno Kalisher (son of Holocaust survivor, Zvi Kalisher, who, at the age of ten, escaped from Poland by himself and found Jesus in a Camp in Cyprus before he was able to enter Israel.
